

Term 2 Newsletter – 8th November 2019

Dear All,
Gosh! The first week of term 2 has gone by already! I do hope you all enjoyed our two-week break. The children seemed refreshed, relaxed and raring to go this week, which was lovely and certainly made the return the school easy.

Next week is national Anti-Bullying week and we will be doing lots of activities around this, however I want to make it clear that EVERY week is anti-bullying. We have a wonderful school environment that values kindness.

“In a world where you can be anything, be kind.”

Thank you for your continued support,
Emma Barker

CLUBS

Thank you for your understanding and support regarding the changes to our after school provision. The Art Club running on a Tuesday is now full but we still have spaces for our multi-sports club on a Thursday. This is available for years R- 2 for this term. The last session for sports will be on Wednesday 11th December due to the nativity plays taking place on the 12th December.

READING

It is really important that parents listen to their children read on a regular basis. Each child has their own Reading Log which is brought home every night with a school book. Please can you ensure that when you hear your child read it is recorded in this book. We check the reading logs on a regular basis. If you are experiencing difficulties getting your child to read then please feel free to discuss with their class teacher who can give you guidance on how to encourage them to read more often. It doesn't have to be the school book, it can be a home book, a magazine, a comic – any reading material! We expect this to be completed at least 3 times a week as regular reading at home has a positive impact on their learning journey at school.

NON UNIFORM DAY

Children are encouraged to come into school in non-uniform on Friday 15th November. We would like to ask that children bring in a raffle prize donation (i.e. box of chocolates, bottle of drink) for the PTFA Christmas fete which is taking place on 1st December. Children are welcome to wear Children in Need accessories if they wish as this falls on the same date and there will be a donation box in the office for any voluntary donations for the charity.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

If your child attends Beavers, Cubs, Scouts, Rainbows, Brownies or Guides they can come into school on Monday 11th November in their respective uniforms as part of the Remembrance Day celebrations.

ODD SOCKS

Children are invited to wear odd socks with their uniform on Tuesday 12th November during Anti-bullying week. It is an opportunity to encourage people to celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique!
